Deafening Cheers Greet the Winner of the Rich Suburban.

GARRISON'S SUPERB RIDING.

Racing by Electric Light--Mike Dwyer's Large Winnings.

The ninth Suburban furnished a contest the the sheepshead Bay course. The cheering was something deafening, and the grandwondered silently whether Montana and Lamplighter would ever catch the flying Major. They did catch him, and the race resulted in a furious finish, with Garrison. Lambley and Bergen riding desperately. The tumult while the horses were finishing was deafening. No scene like it was ever witnessed by the writer since the memorable morning. lengths in front of Lamplighter. The crowd Stephen's Church, where a "month's mind" salvator-Tenny match. Tenny's famous rush up the stretch evoked wild cheers. Montana won Saturday in much the same manner. His run in the final furlong was electrical.

Montana's victory was due to the superb jockeyship of Ed Garrison. Never before did a jockey ride such a desperate finish, and never was a horse handled more carefully than this son of Ban Fox. Garrison nursed him wonderfully, and even at the end of six furlongs, when Major Domo must have been at least fifteen lengths in front of Montana. at least fifteen lengths in front of Montana. Garrison sat like a statue. On the for turn he eased Montana a trifle and began to pass the stragglers. Still he did not really begin to ride until the head of the stretch was reached. He was risking all on Montana's speed in the final quarter. In the stretch he rode as only Garrison can ride, and it was in superb, faultiess style. He never got up until the last jump and then he fairly lifted the colt in a winner by a head.

Bergen also rode a grand race. This clever jockey sized up his field at the post and made up his mind that Montana was the horse he had to beat, the stuck close to Carrison throughout. When the Snapper moved he moved also. In the stretch he went on with Lamplighter, but he timed his run a trifle too late. Four more jumps and Lamplighter would have wen. He was certainly the freshest horse at the end.

Lambley rode a good race, all things considered. He went right out in front with Major Domo, and essayed to win as he did at Hrooklyn on the occasion of Major Domo's two victories at that track. He set a killing pace, and once he reached the stretch he started to look behind him. He saw darrison swooping down on him at a tremendous gait. Then he got anxious and a trifle rattled. Had he sat still and quietly urged his horse with his hands the writer belives he would have won.

M.F. Dwyer is said to be $125,000 winner this season. He only intends to let the bookles get back $25,000, if they can, and will then quit.

Pessara's chantes were ruined by chasing Major Domo and Russell. This also killed His Highness, on whom Murphy showed poor judgment. Russell and Tournament were killed off by Major Domo. Hamilton rode a waiting race with Locohatchee, but was shut off and badly interfered with during the race. When he did get through it was too late. Poet Scout finished well up in fourth place and will be a hard horse to beat during the meeting.

Garrison is the only jockey who has had the two Suburban winners to the post. Byrnes the only trainer who has sent Matt Byrnes declares that if any body is dis-satisfied with the result of the Saburban they can have a match.

The prominent entries in the Sheepshead Bay Handicap, to be run to-morrow at a mile and a furiong, are as follows: Montana, 128; Raceland, 128; Pessara, 119; Loantaka, 120; Hanquet, 116; Madstone, 115; Picknicker, 113; Locohatchee, 110; Nomad, 10d; Livonia, 102.

A despatch from St. Louis says: "At the South Side track Saturday night a test of racing by electric light was made, and it is said to be a great success in every way. Two horses were run around the track, which was lighted with a large number of electric lights. At the beginning of the races only four starters will be allowed to each race. Two races will be allowed to each race. Two races will be run to-night." It is doubtful if racing by electric light will be as successful as the above despatch indicates. The scneme was tried several years ago at New Orleans and found impracticable because of the shadows which the electric lights threw upon the track. A nervous horse will not run under such conditions and will sooner or later cause an accident. Further reports will be awaited with interest.

Fitzpatrick is just $2,000 poorer by not going on to Chicago to ride Yo Tambien in the Garneld Park Derby. He was offered that amount if the filly won, which she did in handy fashion. Burton, who rode, received $1,000 for his services.

Major Covington's riding of Kirkover at Morris Park on Friday is to be investigated. There is no need of it. The "Major" did his best, which is saying much. Nevertheless it is not believed that he rode a criminal race.

Yale's Football Finances.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 20.-The annual report of the Treasurer of the Yale Football Association was made this morning. The gross receipts for the past season were $31,333.85 and the expenditures $13,750.60, leaving a balance of $17.543.16. Of this $2.550 was given to the coacnes, $3,000 to the Track Athletic Association, $3,000 to the gymnasium rud, $4,000 to the Yale Field Association and $2,013.15 to the Yale Financial Union.

Jewelry Manufacturers Assign. A. Bernhard & Co., manufacturing jewellers at 2 Maiden lane, made an assignment to-day to Moses U. Strauss, with preferences of $0,000 to Ella Bernhard for money lent.

CIVIC UNION TO BE EXPLAINED.

Rev. Dixon Will Tell His Brethren All About His Crusade. At the meeting of the Baptist ministers to-ay Rev. Thomas Dixon, jr., announced that on next Monday, after the last meeting of the season, he would explain the aims and purposes of the Civic Union, which he has organ-ized for the purification of New York's municipal government.

The General Committee meeting, he said, would be held in Cooper Union next Thursday evening. Over one thousand names, he said, have been enrolled in the Union, including men of every denomination, except Catholics. He had, however, he announced, received word from a prominent Catholic priest, who desired information on the subect, and he expected to see this man to-night and enlist his support.

"He is not Father Ducey," said Mr. Dixon "but a man who can wield tremendous power. The Union also includes many very prominent business men, some millionaires and men is high positions whose names i dare not mention because of their connection with the city government."
